"36. (1) The Government may invest either the powers of any Civil Court under this Act, by name or in virtue of office,

(b) After consultation with the High Court Division any officer serving in any part of the territories to which this Act extends and belonging to a class defined in this behalf by the Government.

2) Nothing in sections 4, 5, 6, 8, 10 or 11 applies to any officer so invested, but all the other provisions of this Act, shall, so far as those provisions can be made applicable, apply to him as if he were a Judge of the Court with the powers of which he is invested.
