

Human Rights And Peace For Bangladesh (HRPB) has filed a public interest litigation before the Hon'ble High Court Division to save archeological side of Lalbagh Fort at Dhaka. High Court Division passed judgment and directed to stop any kind of construction work adjacent to the Lalbagh Fort area and to implement the provisions of section 12(c) of Antiquities Act, 1968. Direction was given to demarked the area of Lalbagh Fort through a survey within 3 months.

Full contest of the judgment will be available in the web side within short time.